

Fire Science Careers

Blended Online Instruction
Dress Code Requirement

Train for the physically and mentally demanding career of a firefighter, with instruction in fire behavior and extinguishment theory, wild land fire operations, fire protection and safety, and first responder operations. Learn and practice skills used by firefighters such as emergency medical aide, CPR and first aid, and use and maintenance of equipment (hoses and appliances, ground ladders, ropes). Internships will be in local fire stations or at Cal Fire.

Clinical Medical Assisting

Blended Online Instruction
Immunization Requirement
Dress Code Requirement

Prepare for a career as a Clinical Medical Assistant in an office, clinic, or health care center. Learn and demonstrate in-demand skills needed to progress to a clinical setting including, vital signs, preparing patients for examinations, collecting specimens, performing diagnostic tests, venipuncture, administration of medication including injections, and pharmacology and electrocardiograms. Additional instruction includes, ethics and liability, therapeutic communication skills, universal precautions, CPR and first aid for Health Care Providers, medical terminology, as well as anatomy and physiology.

Certifications

College Credit

Hands-On Training

Internships

Visit your Counselor or Career Center to Request a Course

Visit
www.CTEWORKS.com
for more information.

